AN ELECTION was held on Tuesday last in Newark, N. J., which resulted in as great a surprise as the Indiana election. Last October the city went Democratic by nearly 3000 majority, and on Tuesday last the Republicans have a majority of about 2300.

New York, New Jersey and Connecticut are all in fact doubtful for either party and both sides will now transfer their forces to these States, as they will be looked upon as the battle ground for the balance of the campaign.

Ohio and Indiana.

The elections in the above two States, which took place on Tuesday, show results that surprised both parties. That the Republicans would carry Ohio, was generally expected, but Indiana was thought safe for the Democrats.

Indiana elects Porter, Republican, governor by 6,000 majority. The Congressional delegation will probably be eight Republicans and five Democrats.

Terrible Accident.

TROY, N. Y., October 15.—A special to the Telegram says: At a republican demonstration last night at Johnsonville, Charles Nutting, Mellie Welling, Charles Thomas, John Fay, and a Frenchman whose name is unknown, were injured by the explosion of a cannon.

Five Hundred Deaths from Starvation.

SAN FRANCISCO, October 13.—The revenue cutter Corwin brings news that at St. Lawrence Island, out of 700 inhabitants 500 were found dead of starvation. Traders had introduced liquor among them, causing them to neglect laying up the usual supply of provisions.

The Fool Killer Needed.

Commander-in-Chief of Heaven and Earth is the title which Aaron Davis has bestowed upon himself. He is variously regarded as a lunatic, a knave, and a divinity. Over a hundred persons holding the latter belief have gathered around him in a colony at Walla Walla, Oregon.

Too Many Coals in the House.

Aaron Opydke Kitchen, a milkman of Adams street, Brooklyn, has sued his wife, Sarah Black Kitchen for absolute divorce in the Brooklyn City Court.

draw his complaint, and gave Mr. Kitchen a note exonerating him from all suspicion of theft. Mr. Kitchen, after making investigation, began a divorce suit, and ex-Assemblyman Munday is named in the complaint.

A Frog that Went Ducking.

A Plantsville druggist has preserved in alcohol a huge bullfrog, and in its mouth a young duck. The history of the pair is as follows:

Mr. Freeman, of Plainville, had from time to time missed young ducks, in all some twenty or twenty-five, for whose mysterious disappearance he was unable to account. Determined to fathom the mystery he watched for the enemy, and surprised him in the shape of a large bullfrog, as he seized one of the young ducks and was in the act of swallowing it, when Mr. Freeman put an end to the sport by rapping him over the head with a club.

Shot for a Deer.

A couple of young men up in Shawano county Wisconsin, were hunting for deer of them accidentally shot his companion. They agreed to halloo to one-another when separated in the woods.

Three Children Burned to Death.

ST. LOUIS, October 14.—The residence of Jesse Jordan, about a mile from Carlinville, Illinois, was burned on Tuesday night, and three children, aged six, ten and thirteen years respectively, perished in the flames.

Latest from the catalogue of meanest men: A Rhode Islander, arrested for not paying fare on a Sunday train on the Boston and Providence Railroad, raised the point through his counsel that the running of Sunday trains was a violation of the law, and that the company had no legal right to collect fares.

ATLANTIC CITY, October 13.—Frederick Kushensmen, aged about 43 years, proprietor of the New York House, Michigan and Atlantic Avenues, fatally shot himself while gunning on the beach below the Excursion Houses this morning.

The New York Sun says: It is reported that when W. H. English, of Indiana, Democratic candidate for Vice-President, learned of the great Democratic defeat in his own State, last Tuesday, he brought down his fist and exclaimed: "I would not have had this happen for a dollar."

PENNSYLVANIA STATE COLLEGE admits both sexes. Endowment half a million. Tuition free. Courses of study, Classical, Scientific, and Agricultural. A thorough Preparatory Department. Expenses $3 to $5 per week.

Miscellaneous News Items.

A man named Werner, of Edenburg, Butler county, became angered at his daughter at the breakfast table on Wednesday and hurled a butter knife at her. The knife struck the girl on the forehead, inflicting a terrible wound.

Enos Cummings, a farmer of Westmoreland county, was ordered out of his wagon and searched a few nights ago by a highwayman. Mr. Cummings got out on the off side of the wagon and dropped a roll of $75 in notes, which he recovered early the next morning.

A limb of a chestnut tree in the top of which Fenwick McLeod, of Clearfield, was hunting for nuts, broke under the young man's weight and precipitated him to a pile of stones thirty feet below. He received injuries that most likely will prove fatal.

The Huntingdon Globe of last week said: On Sunday a week, a three-year old child of Mr. David Strait attempted to swallow an acorn, but it stuck in the child's throat. A surgeon was called in, who endeavored to extract it, but failed, and was finally compelled to force it down, when it lodged in the lungs.

A train from Quinsy was fired upon, the other evening, near Hannibal. Two shots passed through the rim of the engineer's hat, and one shot evidently intended for the conductor, hit a brakeman. The conductor saw faintly through the darkness two men and a woman standing some distance from the track, but there is no the slightest suspicion as to who were the perpetrators of the cowardly deed.

A boy named Baker living on Washington street, Richmond, Ind., loaded a wooden cannon with rifle powder and fired a salute in honor of General Hancock. When the smoke cleared away he was found in a washtub near by with his front teeth gone, his chin cut, and his face filled with powder.

On Tuesday morning a little 4-year old daughter of H. E. Shaffer was instantly killed at Mt. Union. She was playing with her brother in front of a store, where stood a wheelbarrow on which were two barrels of apples. The little ones were playing about the wheelbarrow when by some means it was upset, one of the barrels of apples falling upon the little girl and crushing the life out of her.

The indignant clerk of a New York steamer is the victim of a joke, and a rather stern joke too, judging from the following personal in a recent Herald: The lady who left the child in charge of the clerk of steamer Sylvan Dell last Sunday, at Newburg, will have the kindness to call next Sunday and reclaim it. The clerk is unmarried, and is not in want of a family.

Mr. Ressler of Harrisburg went with a party of friends in a wagon to the mountain Sunday morning, and while up in a tree for the purpose of gathering chestnuts, a limb upon which he was standing broke. Mr. R. alighted on his feet, but suddenly fell over, and when his companions came to his rescue, they found his leg broken in two places.

Mrs. Mary Ritter of Bethlehem, is an invalid. Recently she was approached by a Gypsy woman, who promised to cure her for eighty-two dollars in money and about a score of such articles as dresses, breast-pins and ribbons. The Gypsy procured all she asked for, and enjoining Mrs. Ritter to keep the transaction from Mr. Ritter she disappeared. She has not been heard from since.

Michael and John Carson, and a 19-year old boy named Samuel Benner, were killed in Spruce Creek tunnel last Sunday, but at what hour and by what train is not certainly known. The bodies all lay between the two tracks that run through the tunnel. It is believed that they were on their way to see the wreck of the trains in which DeHuff lost his life.

Charles Newhouse, thirty years old, living on Sixteenth street, below Sansom, and a member of the firm of Ranshoff & Newhouse, dry goods commission dealers, shot and killed himself in the office of the firm, rear of 726 Market street, early Wednesday morning. Deceased is said to have had a mania for buying and trading pistols, and always owned a number of the weapons. While showing one of them to a few friends, it was accidentally discharged, the contents entering the left breast causing instant death.

On Mr. Aub Camp's place, near Cedar-town, Ga., a little negro girl 6 years of age was left to mind a baby sister while the mother went to a well for water. The mother staying some time, and the baby fretting, the girl took a phial of laudanum from the shelf and made the baby drink it, from the effects of which it died in a very short while. It is supposed that the girl had seen her mother give the baby laudanum to quiet it, and, unconscious of its deadly effect, had concluded to do likewise.

The Altoona Tribune of the 12th inst., says: Jacob Braunt, of St. Augustine, Cambria county, lost a horse on Saturday from a rattlesnake bite. He was driving to Altoona with a load of lumber, and in the vicinity of the Buckhorn he encountered a large rattlesnake in the road, but did not see it in time to stop the team. The snake in passing under the horses fastened its fangs in the leg of one of them, and subsequently disappeared in the underbrush before it could be killed. He drove on to the city, the horse giving no evidence of any serious injury, but on his return home the leg of the animal began to swell, and the horse soon after dropped over dead.

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER.

WASHINGTON, D. C., October 13, 1880. The Republicans of the city "took their turn" last night and revenged themselves on those Democrats who a month ago, rejoiced over Maine. The streets and avenues were full of exulting men as soon as definite returns from Ohio and Indiana were received, and the time and chances between October 13th and November 2nd, seemed to have no place in men's minds. I have never known a greater display of interest in this city in returns from any election.

The District of Columbia sends greetings to the thirty-eight States, and asks their interest in a National Fair, to be held annually in Washington, at which every production of every section of country shall be represented. Letters to the several Governors of States have been sent, and favorable answers from several have been received. The subject will be brought before Congress at its next session, though not with a view to pecuniary assistance. It is believed that the common good would be advanced by permanent State representation of material interest at such a central point as the Capitol of the country, and there is little doubt that the small necessary expense would be cheerfully paid by the people of each State.

During the last few days many Southern men—business men—have been in town, most of them on their way to Baltimore to witness the ceremonies incident to that city's 150th anniversary. Every one of these men with whom I had an opportunity of conversing, represented business affairs in his neighborhood as being in better condition than at any time in years. Most of them, too, said that political feeling was much less powerful among Southern men than formerly, and that nothing but the Presidential election induced any one to take part at all in the campaign. I have never before heard from representative Southern men as gratifying an account of affairs in the States of Virginia and North and South Carolina as is now given.

At the end of this week every Cabinet officer except Secretary of War, Ramsey, will be in the city it is said. There is no later returns from the President than that of a week since, to the effect that he would return here about the first of November.

Justice Clifford, of the Supreme Court, is not as well this morning, and his family and friends have given up all idea of his ever returning to the performance of his judicial duties.

Senator Edmunds is in the city, for the first time since the adjournment. He is in excellent health. General Butler and Senator Carpenter, with Senator Edmunds are in attendance on the Supreme Court. Besides the lottery cases, in which Senator Carpenter appears, he and General Butler are engaged in an important Florida Rail Road case involving questions of great interest between the State and several citizens of Washington.

OLIVE.

Peterson's Magazine is on our table for November, ahead of all others, and as usual, more and more improved. It is a wonder how this unrivalled lady's book can be published at so low a price, yet always be getting better, but the secret, we suppose, lies in its enormous circulation. The November issue leads off with a capital steel engraving, "Missy in the Bulks," and is followed by one of those double size steel fashion plates, superbly colored, only seen in this periodical, and lots of good reading matter. With this number appears the Prospectus for 1881, when Six Original Novels will be given, and in addition a hundred shorter stories. A series of brilliantly illustrated articles will appear. Also a Paper Pattern for a Dress, every month. The price of "Peterson's" is but Two Dollars a year, or less than any other first-class magazine, postage free. To clubs the terms are even lower, viz: two copies for $3.50, with a superb, copyright magnet (size 34 inches by 20) "Grandfather tells of Yorktown," or an illustrated Album, quarto, gilt, as a premium. Or five copies for $8.00, with both an extra copy and either the Engraving or Album for premium. For larger clubs the premiums are even more tempting. Now is the time to get up clubs for 1881. Specimens are sent, gratis, if written for. Subscribe to nothing until you have seen a copy of "Peterson." Address CHARLES J. PETERSON, 206 Chestnut St., Philadelphia.

Ballou's Monthly Magazine for November.

The leading article in Ballou's Monthly Magazine for the month of November is an illustrated paper on Madeira, told in a gossipy way that is quite entertaining and instructive, and then follows several engravings which the reader will prize. "Marian's Old Aunt" is growing more interesting as the novel proceeds and the plot is developed, and then comes a table of contents that cannot be excelled by any publication, and entitles it to be called the best family magazine in the country. Now is the time to subscribe for this popular and cheap magazine. Published by Thomas & Talbot, 23 Hawley Street, Boston, Mass., at only $1.50 per annum, postpaid, and for sale at all the news depots in the country at 15 cents a copy.

A New Paying Occupation for Ladies and Gentlemen.

The Handsome Nickel Plated New Home Lamp being introduced to the public this Season is the most meritorious article ever offered Agents to make money with, is safer, and more convenient than the Student Lamp, which has heretofore had the reputation of being the safest lamp made. It has a clamp to firmly attach it to the Sewing Machine, Piano, Organ, Desk, etc. The fear of the ordinary lamp being accidentally upset or thrown from the table, is entirely relieved by this simple clamp contrivance. It can be adjusted to throw the light just where it is wanted to suit the eyes, and can be converted into a handsome wall lamp. It has the best argand burner, a filling indicator, and convenient match box, and its price is within the reach of every one. It has been fully tested, and editorially endorsed by the "Western Christian Advocate," "Am. Christian Review," "Herald and Presbyter," "Journal and Messenger," and "Christian Standard," the leading Religious papers of Cincinnati, and is endorsed by the Mayor and Post-Master of Cincinnati, the Agent of the American Express Company and Presidents of Insurance Companies, as being the safest most convenient and best lamp made.

There are three reasons why Agents should seek such an article to canvass for—first for its absolute safety and great convenience, it is needed in every home—second its low price makes its sale immense.—third it will be a credit to handle such an article. One southern Agent writes, it sells faster than Gen. Lee's Portrait sold right after the war, another writes it beats the palmy days of the Sewing Machine, its rapid sale, low price, and liberal terms surprise old Agents. Address Home Lamp Co., Cincinnati, Ohio, mentioning our paper and they will give you full particulars and exclusive territory to canvass in.

Cheapest and Best

PETERSON'S MAGAZINE.

FULL-SIZE PAPER PATTERNS!

A Supplement will be given in every number for 1881 containing a full-size pattern for a lady's or child's dress. Every subscriber will receive, during the year, twelve of these patterns, worth more, alone, than the subscription price. Peterson's Magazine is the best and the cheapest of the lady's books. It gives more for the money, and combines greater merits, than any other. In short it has the best Steel Engravings, the best Colored Fashions, the best Dress Patterns, the best Original Stories, the best Work-table Patterns, the best Music, etc., etc.

Its immense circulation and long established reputation enables its proprietor to distance all competition. In 1880, a new feature was introduced, which will be improved on in 1881, being a series of SPLENDIDLY ILLUSTRATED ARTICLES. The stories, novels, etc., in "Peterson" are admitted to be the best published. All the most popular female writers contribute to it. In 1881, about 100 original stories will be given, and in addition Six Copyright Novels, by Ann S. Stephens, Frank Lee Benedict, Jane G. Austin, Mary V. Spencer, Sidney Trevor, and that inimitable humorist, the author of "Josiah Allen's Wife." The Colored Steel Fashion Plates

In "Peterson" are ahead of all others. These plates are engraved on steel, twice the usual size, and are unequalled for beauty. They will be superbly colored. Also, Household and other receipts; articles on Art Embroidery, Flower Culture, in short everything interesting to ladies.
